Secretary General

The Executive Council is seeking applicants for the position of IFSMA Secretary General. Interested persons are requested to send their CV, together with a covering letter explaining why they believe they are suited for this exciting and challenging position, to IFSMA no later than Thursday 25th February. (email: hq@ifsma.org)

The position will attract a consultancy fee of £40,000 per annum (all in), initially on a part time basis. The Secretary General needs to live in, or close to, London. An important part of the duties will be representing the Federation at IMO. Some international travel is required.

The successful candidate must have a maritime background, with a network in London as well as internationally. He or she must be a good communicator and an experienced policy maker with the ability and desire to work with the IFSMA Executive Council to grow the Federation and its activities.

Successful candidates will be called for interview on 7th March in London.
